DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO JUNE 26.

[Congressional]

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In the Senate Yates called up the bill to admit Colorado. The question was on an amendment by the committee on Territories providing for a general election for a State Legislature and State officers within sixty days after the passage of this act, and that no steps taken to enact with in 30 days after the election in any way as a fundamental condition for the admission that the State shall ratify the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. If new election shall be held and void. This was adopted by inserting after the word allowing the Legislature to decide if such votes against admission. Also by allowing the Legislature to proceed to the election of United States Senators in case it is in favor of admission. Conkling offered an amendment requiring the question of ratification to be submitted to the people at the election authorized by the bill.

It was opposed by Yates, Howard, Tipton, Nye and others as unnecessary and sustained by Mr. Morton. Without acting on the bill or amendments the Senate went into executive session and after a protracted session adjourned.

In the House a large number of private bills were passed.

Brooks introduced a bill to amend the act executing certain manufactures from tax. Referred.

Banks gave notice that he would ask the House on next Tuesday to consider the Alaska appropriation bill.

The Senate amendments to the legislative appropriation bill was referred.

Mr. Washburn gave notice that he would report the deficiency appropriation bill. After a long discussion on a motion to recommit the bill. Boutwell moved to table it. Rejected.

Colfax moved to postpone to the next session. Rejected by 38 to 49. Other motions were offered and lost. The House proceeded to consider the bill by sections.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Gen. McMahon as Minister to Paraguay and rejected Mulford for Collector of Internal Revenue of the Richmond District. No action was taken on Evarts.

The Senate Finance Committee reported against the confirmation of Perry Fuller as Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will report favorably on the Edmunds bill providing that the States not represented in Congress shall not be allowed to participate in the Presidential election.

Speculations about Democratic Candidates.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The New York Tribune says the fact has just been discovered that Seymour is really a candidate for Democratic nomination. The two thirds rule is sure to be adopted. Neither Seymour nor Pendleton can get two thirds. Chase's chances are improving. The pressure from Washington in his favor is immense. He may get two thirds on the first ballot. If not, Hendricks will get the nomination. The real fight is now between Chase and Hendricks. The California and Oregon delegates have opened their headquarters at the North House and are working hard for Judge Field. They may be more successful in their efforts to get Haight as the second name on the ticket.

California Land Claim.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—To Messrs. Barron & Co. San Francisco. The Senate Committee on private land claims have just reported against the Panoche Grande claim of McGarrahan.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Vera Cruz dates to the 20th state that De Castro, Minister of Justice, has insisted on resigning.

M. Corral, formerly Secretary of Legation at Washington, has been installed as Judge of the Supreme Court. Rivera was foiled by forces sent against him.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The Santiago De Cuba from Aspinwall has arrived. The Herald's correspondence from Mexico, of date of the 15th states that Juarez has remained firm in his refusal to change his Cabinet. Romero has been ordered from Washington. The English bondholders had been informed that their negotiations with Maximilian annulled all negotiations on the part of Mexico. There is no cordiality between the American Legation and Juarez owing to the protection of the Europeans in the American Consulate.

Diatiste will command an expedition against the Huebla insurgents.

Baylt advices state that the peasants on the plains are all armed and declared in favor of balmaceda.

The American Minister has detained the Iowa at Iquitti until the arrival of Consul Cook.

Miscellaneous.

The committee say they do not ask the friends of prohibition to form any new political party, but to place the Republican party at the next State Convention on that platform which commends itself to the judgment of a majority of its members.

THE MILLIGAN ARE AGAIN—HIS CHANCE OF OFFICE TAKING DAMAGE.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—The case of Milligan the chief of the band of Liberty conspirators vs. Governor Morton, General Horsey, the Military Commission who tried him, and Judge Gregory and Frazier, of the Supreme Court, for a half million dollars came up in the Huntington Common Pleas Court yesterday. The defendants moved to transfer the case to the United States District Court under a recent act of Congress and in their petition set forth the treason of Milligan and his rebel associates in such strong terms as to make Milligan squirm during the reading. As soon as the reading was finished Milligan asked that the case be adjourned over until next week to give him time to examine the law. He has been unable to associate any respectable attorney in the case with him. The Judge out of pity for him, adjourned the case over until next week.

FROM GWINEY.

[From the Avalanche, June 20.]

THE GREAT TUNNEL.

Geo. C. Robbins has about completed the survey of his great tunnel enterprise to which we have alluded before. Col. Davis is now at work on the maps and diagrams which will be completed inside of a week. Mr. Robbins will start for New York in eight or ten days. The tunnel will run through War Eagle mountain, commencing on the west side at a point in Home Ticket gulch and terminating on the east side in Union gulch a tributary of Sinker creek. The entire length will be 8,967 feet, and its greatest depth from the surface 1,540 feet. Besides a host of others it will penetrate fifteen well defined and good paying ledges, among which are the Silver Cord, Poorman, War Eagle, Ida Elmore and Golden Chariot or Oro Fino, &c. The tunnel will tap the Poorman 991 feet below the surface, at a distance of 1,562 feet from the west end. The Oro Fino will be penetrated at a depth of 775 feet 8 inches 523 feet east of the Poorman. The line of the tunnel crosses near the division line between the Ida Elmore and Golden Chariot which it will cut 912 feet deep. This is certainly the greatest mining enterprise of the age, and it cannot fail of being a very profitable one.

THE CALAVERAS.

This mine is without doubt one of the richest in camp. The main shaft is down as we are informed, sixty feet and shows a width of quartz varying from one to three feet. Visiting the mine last Wednesday we found H. J. McMahon who has a portion of the mine bonded running in a incline on the ledge north of the shaft. The quartz is a decomposed mixture and besides silver contains a large amount of free gold. We saw about half an ounce of gold washed out of one pan of the decomposed stuff and out of three pans two ounces were obtained.

BULLION ASSAYED.

Blake & Bro.'s bullion assays for May amount to $229 568 of which $158 518 is silver and the remainder gold. The entire amount of bullion assayed in camp for the two months ending May 31 is $3 8 683 23 as shown on the books of Charles Hilton, Deputy United States Internal Revenue Assessor. Next month the principal mines and mills will be in operation and a year hence the full product of the Owyhee mines will not be far short of a million dollars per month.

THE WOODSTOCK.

The Woodstock Company are now down forty feet on their north shaft below the tunnel level. At that depth the quartz is about three feet in width and looks richer than ever. Seventy five tons of the ore are being hauled to the Upper Sinker mill and we will doubtless be able to report a large return of bullion.

THE RISING STAR MINE.

In the Rising Star mine work is progressing with uninterrupted vigor. Upwards of 200 tons of well assorted rock is now on the dump which is taken out of the upper level where the ledge is still twenty feet wide. The main shaft has been sunk to a depth of 120 feet where a new level has been started with. At this depth the ledge has been penetrated to a width of about eight feet showing an increased richness of ore and remarkable purity of metal, most of which rubs silver freely. The steam hoisting works will be under the ground in a few days when the shaft will be continued about eighty feet deeper where another level will be started. Another shaft has been started also 1,900 feet south of the main shaft on the original discovery. This shaft is intended for the purpose of ventilation and will strike the upper level at a depth of about 700 feet. The second level at 1,100 feet and the intended lower level at a depth of about 2,000 feet when the mine must be considered in a fine condition to furnish ore enough to keep a necessary fifty stamp mill employed. The mill is expected to be in working order before the end of July and is expected to cost about two hundred thousand dollars. Before the first brick was received for it Company will have expended for mill and mine between three and four hundred thousand dollars but will have in exchange a mine superior to any now opened and worked on the Pacific coast.

The New York Tribune says that the Democratic leaders just now are in the anxious and hopeful condition of that hide-bound old maid who went into the lists for a husband. She wanted a man—she wanted a husband. Cooking, hunting, and stuffing knew all the fat of the land—she prayed long and earnestly that heaven would send her a man. A sleepy owl in the branches above just then carried out Hon. H. Hoe. Anybody. A good Lord! responded the anxious virgin. And Anybody good Lord! saves the Democratic party.

County Hospital Again.

EAST PORTLAND, June 29th, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In an article on the maintenance of the poor, published in your issue of June 27th, there are some statements which I deem it my duty to correct.

You say that you are informed on good authority that the County Hospital was colonized with Democratic voters.

You are aware I presume that in no case is a pauper admitted into the County Hospital without an order from Judge Marquam and countersigned by the County Clerk so that I am at a loss to understand how Dr. Hawthorne could by any possibility colonize voters into the Hospital. If any one is to blame at all on account of the being so many patients in the Hospital it is the County Judge and not Dr. Hawthorne, as I said before Dr. H. does not—[illegible] any one without an order from him; and if [illegible] presents himself so provided, if [illegible] the contract between the parties, Dr. [illegible] is obliged to receive all that come.

The facts in the case are these: The pauper population of the county, and [illegible] of this city have been steadily on the increase for the past four years and neither Dr. Hawthorne nor Judge Marquam are [illegible] for it.

From my knowledge of [illegible] in connection with the City Hospital, I do not believe that Dr. Hawthorne [illegible] any patient in the Hospital for the purpose of [illegible] any longer time than he [illegible] for his recovery, or that he need say a word [illegible] cause any of them to vote. The average for this year however is but little more than last. Notwithstanding the large number of patients in the Hospital on the day of election there were but five who voted in the [illegible] in which the Hospital is situated. If any others voted they must have done so in [illegible] precinct.

This is my fourth year with Drs. Wythe & Loryea and I feel satisfied that Dr. Hawthorne has never tried to control the votes of the employees of the Institution for the benefit of the county patients. Indeed, he never [illegible] in political matters, even casually, of all the physicians of this city.

I should not have presumed to trouble you with this communication if I had not known that the charges to which I have referred are false and do great injustice to Dr. Hawthorne.

J. KENWORTHY,
Supt. City Hospital.

The writer of this letter supposes [illegible] to be correcting some statements made by us in a previous article, but he is in error. We did not charge Dr. Hawthorne with having colonized the hospital with Democratic voters. But we do say that we have been [illegible] on good authority that the Democratic managers of this county make free use of its hospital in having this thing done. The [illegible] turned away a large number who [illegible] pation to him for admission, but [illegible] some whom he could not [illegible] and it is believed would never have [illegible] sion for admission had they not [illegible] to do so by those who want [illegible] the county election. The [illegible] the other day shows that the [illegible] hospital for April and May were [illegible] greater than for any other [illegible]. The pauper expenses of the county are [illegible] gradually increasing, but if they are to continue to increase so fast as they [illegible] to try some other system.

Grant's Style of Composition.

The Copperheads think it disgraceful to run a man for President who cannot make a windy speech. True, Washington never made a speech in his life, and could not have made one if all his honors, civil and military, had depended on the effort. Andrew Jackson was no orator, yet he found means of making himself pretty well understood by the South Carolina Democrats who meditated secession. So General Grant, though no orator as Andrew Johnson is (?) always manages to express himself in such a manner as not to be misunderstood. Among the carping critics who are assailing Grant because he can't make a speech is "General" S. B. Buckner, editor of the Louisville Courier. Buckner sharply reviews Grant's style and ideas, is decidedly of opinion that he won't do. The Copperhead editor thinks no man is fit to be President whose style of composition is so faulty as he endeavors to make out Grant's to be. But even Buckner must admit that Grant's style has directness and force. Here is a brief composition which attests its excellence in these points:

> HEADQUARTERS ARMY IN THE FIELD,
> CAMP NEAR DONELSON, Feb. 16, 1862.
> To Gen. S. B. Buckner, Confederate Army:
> SIR—In view of the overwhelming force which compels me to propose it, I am compelled to propose immediate and unconditional surrender of the forces under your command, and the post occupied by them. I prefer to move immediately upon your works. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant. U. S. GRANT,
> Brig. Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

Buckner complained of this style at the time, and called it "unchivalrous" and "unusual"; but he did not fail to comprehend Grant's meaning, and made haste to comply with the terms required. The opposition of Buckner and other Democratic editors to Grant, on account of his literary style, was begun several years ago.

When Gen. Grant was before Vicksburg in 1863 he was visited by Pemberton, the rebel commander, who was anxious to know on what terms the city could be relieved from the "additional coercion" of the seige just then pending. We give the speeches:

> PEMBERTON. Gen. Grant, I meet you in order to arrange terms for capitulation. What terms do you demand?
> GRANT. Unconditional surrender! Unconditional surrender! Never, nothing else! I have a man left me. I will fight!
> GRANT—Very well.

In a short time the force of Grant's brief words became clear to Pemberton's mind, and he complied as Buckner had done.

There are several other pieces of composition—not which are known to have been written by Grant, such as,—"I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer," and the note to Lee at Appomattox Court House, which reads,—"I propose to receive the surrender of the army of Northern Virginia on the following terms," etc. We think Grant will manage to make Democrats admire him in future quite as well as he has in the past. His style, however odd it may seem to them, is quite satisfactory to Union men. We here take occasion to republish his noble letter accepting the Union Republican nomination:

> To Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, President National Union Republican Convention: In formally accepting the nomination of the National Union Republican Convention of the 21st of May, it is proper that some statement of views beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination should be expected. The proceedings of the Convention have, with wisdom, moderation, and firmness, declared the principles which I believe express the feeling of those who sustained the Government during the late rebellion. If elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws in good faith, with economy, and with the views of giving peace, protection everywhere. In times like these, it is impossible, or at least eminently unwise, to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong, through an administration of four years. New political issues, not foreseen, are constantly arising; the views of the public on old ones are constantly changing, and a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I always have done so, and always shall. Peace and its advantages—with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation, while it constantly reduces the national debt. Let us have peace. With great respect, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT.

The Vote for Ten Years.

We present below a statement of the votes cast in Oregon at each general election since the organization of the State government:

STATE OR COUNTY.				TOTAL VOTE
		JUNE, 1858.
Grover, Dem.	5,209	Kelly, Nat. Dem.	4,190
		McBride, Rep.	47	10,096
		Governor.
Whiteaker, Dem.	5,788	Harmon, Nat Dem.	3,274	9,062

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, 1860.
Wilson, Rep.	5,270	Breckinridge, Dem.	5,006
Douglas, Dem.	3,951	Bell, Am.	183	14,411
STATE ELECTION, JUNE, 1862.
		Congress.
McBride, Union,	6,809	Wait, Dem.	3,632	10,441

STATE ELECTION, JUNE, 1866.

		Governor.
Woods, Un.	10,283	Kelly, Dem.	9,966	20,230
STATE ELECTION, JUNE, 1868.
Chadwick, Un.	10,580	Smith, Dem.	11,789	22,369

It will be seen that the vote of the State has more than doubled in ten years. It is certain that the Union party from 1863 to 1865 did not have more than 1,000 majority of the actual voters of the State, and that the large majorities of 1862 and 1864 were owing to the non-appearance of Democrats at the polls. The contest in any election during the war would have been very close had the Democrats made any fight. Neither McBride, Gibbs nor Henderson obtained half the votes in the State; yet they were all elected by large majorities. The Union vote has steadily increased, and this fall it will be much larger than ever before. The late defeat ought to deter no Union man from doing his duty.

Somebody says that the Postmaster General is in constant receipt of letters from all parts of the country demanding the immediate decapitation of Petroleum V. Nasby as Postmaster at "Confedrit X Roads."

The Railroad Suits.

SALEM, June 29, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In the issue of the daily Herald of Sunday morning, under the caption of "Oregon Central Railroad Company," the following statement was made: "We are informed that telegrams were received yesterday from Salem, showing that Judge Boise has decided that the East side Company is not entitled to the use of the name of the "Oregon Central Railroad Company," and as such statement is calculated to create a false impression, and one, too, detrimental to the East side Company, I desire a small space in your columns to state the facts in reference to that matter:

Doubtless "telegrams" such as are referred to in the Herald's article, were received as stated; but the same, no matter from whom received, were entirely false. No such decision was made by Judge Boise, and if any such telegram was sent by any one at all familiar with the case before the court, and with the points decided by the Judge, then the same was not only false but wilfully so by the author.

The facts are simply these: A suit was instituted by the West side Company praying for an injunction to restrain the use of the name by the East side Company; to this complaint a demurrer was interposed which the Court overruled, holding that there was enough in the complaint to require an answer; whereupon the attorneys for the West side Company asked leave to file an amended complaint in ten days time, which was granted; the Court also giving the East side Company forty days to plead to such amended complaint. All that was decided, therefore, so far as any reference to name is concerned, was simply this: that the plaintiff had presented a complaint that could not be thrown out of Court simply by demurrer, but that an answer should be filed in order that the case might be tried on the facts. Judge Boise, however, did decide in the case and it was one of the law questions raised by the demurrer that the act of the Legislature of this State passed in October, A. D. 1866, guaranteeing the payment of interest on one million dollars of the bonds of the "Oregon Central Railroad Company" and which aid is claimed solely by the West side Company is unconstitutional and therefore void, and that the franchise and aid claimed by the West side Company by virtue of such act amount to nothing for the reasons stated.

The author, or authors, of the "telegrams" referred to in his or their anxiety to create a false impression in the public mind in reference to the validity of the East side Company, studiously omitted to state that an application made to Judge Boise, ostensibly by the State of Oregon, but really by the so-called Gasten Company, for leave to bring an action in the nature of quo warranto against the East side Company to vacate its charter for alleged imperfections and offenses,—and which was argued for some two days by the attorneys for the West side company—was refused by his Honor Judge Boise upon the ground that the West side Company wholly failed to show any good reasons even by the experte and uncontradicted affidavit of J. Gaston, upon which the application was based, why such an action should be permitted to be commenced.

The above is a true statement of the decisions made by Judge Boise in the two railroads cases before him at the present term of Court, and any person who states by telegram or otherwise, that Judge Boise decided that the East side Company was not entitled to the use of the name "The Oregon Central Railroad Company," simply falsifies the record, whether the motive prompting such statement be good or evil; and as the tendency for such a statement is to deceive the public, which I have no hesitation in believing was the purpose of the author of the telegrams referred, I have deemed it no more than an act of justice to the public who are interested in knowing the truth, to make this correction, and I therefore respectfully solicit for it a place in your columns.

Yours respectfully,
J. H. MITCHELL,
Attorney for O. C. R. R. Co.

Two Opinions of Grant.

We place in contrast below some passages from the New York World on General Grant, which are quite in the style of Burlah of the Oregon Herald. So it will be seen that Beriah, shameless as he is in his self-contradictions, is by no means alone in that line:

REWARD GRANT.
From the New York World.
Of the [illegible] and assertedness of General Grant's patriotism, or the uprightness and solidity of his character, no man in the country doubts, or affects to doubt. * * On the score of loyalty and solid public services, no man in the country can come into competition with this illustrious soldier. * * * The Presidency can be nothing to him; he has a more valuable office. But if, in the hands of Providence, he could be an instrument for tranquillizing the country, that is an honor for which he could afford to sacrifice ease, and [illegible] the possibilities of still greater fame as a soldier.

As Washington was elected and reelected on the strength of his character and services, without pledge either asked or given, we trust that Grant will be elected in the same way. Having restored the authority of the Government, we hope he may add the highest civic to the high military fame, hope restoring long-lost cordiality of feeling.

A CHANGE GRANT.
From the New York World.
Nobody is hardy enough to claim civil capacity for General Grant. Out of the army he has only been a bankrupt farmer, a taciturn tanner, and a hard drinker. His literary abilities were insufficient to secure him a copyist's stool in the office of the Prothonotary of St. Louis, in 1864.

His most exaggerating praisers dare not aver his intellectuality to be less than his obtuseness. In politics he has always taken up with the minds that mastered him. During and after the Mexican war, General Harney took pity on Lieutenant Grant, then the butt of every one's joke, and used to remonstrate with him on his wild courses. At that time Grant was a States-right Democrat because Harney was, whose influence was sufficient to mould the opinions, but could not restrain the appetites of the ductile young man.

It is said that William H. Seward still wants to be President, and that he believes if he could get the Democratic nomination he could beat Grant! What folly could be rankor than this ambition for the Presidency which has possessed so many of our eminent men! And how loth they are to give up the hope! Who does not remember the examples of Clay and Webster and Douglas? The country will probably always see those whom it has recognized as its greatest men pursuing on for this prize,—

> Lured with the burning scent of place and power,
> Staunch to the foot of lucre, till they die.

But to see in Seward an anxiety still burning to attain this highest place, is, perhaps, the most melancholy instance of the kind yet presented. Here is the place to let the moralist of the Night Thoughts speak:

> Like our shadows,
> Our wishes lengthen as our sun declines.
> Though old one foot in the grave, death and sins are green.
> Like damaged clocks, whose hands and ball dissent,
> Folly clings six while nature points at twelve.

Mr. Colfax grandly says: "The new nickname flung at us is 'Radicals.' I had rather be called a Radical than a rebel, at any time. I am a Radical for right against wrong; for liberty against slavery; for justice against tyranny—a Radical friend of my country, and a Radical enemy of every hater of my native land. I believe in a Radical government 'of the people by the people' the world over, and my sympathies go out toward the Radicals, who are trying to imitate our free institutions in Greece, Italy, France, Ireland and Mexico. I wish to see a belt of republics encircle the globe. I am for leveling up rather than leveling down. God do so to me, and more also, if I do ought more to crush any man down lower."

The San Francisco Call, a Copper-Johnson organ, has finally arrived at the conclusion that the whites are not all disfranchised in the South, and that "the vote in the several unrepresented States is comparatively so equal, that a vigorous effort by the old masters of the soil would, we have not the least doubt, result in success." The Copperheads have had a good deal to say about "negro domination," and it is a little remarkable that all their twaddle should come to so sudden an end.

In the course of a party article, entitled "New York in Advance," the World of that city, says: "During the last seven years of agony, New York has been true to Democracy and the cause of Constitutional liberty." Yes, and as her reward for being thus true to the Democracy, the tax levy this year, in the city of New York, foots up nearly $25,000,000, the larger part of which is to go into the pockets of a band of thieves, compared with whom the San Francisco officials whom the Vigilence Committee ousted were virtuous and faithful public servants. So says the San Francisco Times.

The funeral of the late Most Rev. James Donahue took place from St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday, and was a very imposing affair. The remains of the deceased lady were brought from Santa Clara yesterday by a special funeral train. The train was suitably draped, and on the road from the house of the deceased to the station, and at the several stopping places on the railroad, profound respect was paid to the remains. Mrs. Donahue had been one of the warmest friends of many local charitable institutions, especially of the Catholic Orphan Asylum.

J. Burden and Ira B. Seymour, the two clerks who robbed the American Express Company at Syracuse, New York, last April, were arrested yesterday and will be sent east to-morrow.

HUDSON BAY CO. AND THE INDIANS.—The Bulletin of last evening makes the following extraordinary statement: "A gentleman from Victoria gives us the following facts concerning the Indian outrages on the North Fork Coast, & their allies, the Hudson Bay Company Capt. D Warren said to M. A Foster and Wm McCurdy that on returning to Victoria and reporting the circumstances of the attack of the Indians upon his sloop, Thomas, to the First Lieutenant of the ship Tuscarora, he was the next day arrested and put under $2,000 bonds. This action, as Capt. Warren has since learned, was taken by the Hudson Bay Company, who have not yet gone to trouble into the matter. It is known that the same Indians murdered Captain Jack Knight and partner, but a short time before. The same Indians on board of these vessels robbed the H Dutch packet of a large quantity of furs, and when the Captain, Captain Warren, the people of the Dutch Coast, informed them that a friendly Indian chief had told to have the Indians were hostile, they were pronounced to be with Russian Indians, having been in permanent league with the Chief of the Tsimpsean tribe of Indians in the Chief of the Tsimpsean tribe of Indians in the vicinity of Fort Rupert. We also learn that Capt. Warren and his men and feelings are peculiarly hostile to all American fur traders and not any too friendly to those living to be English The facts indicate a strong Hudson Bay Co Indian war influence against American or other men to behalf of that Company It is evident from the late action of the two gentlemen above named that Hudson's Bay Co's naval officers are inclined, and more than probably instructed, to protect the H. B. Co's people in encouraging the Indians in robbery and murder of all outside parties upon their trading localities as they are known to fabricate and affirm that the whites are the aggressors, and to arrest them for punishment."

NOT IN GOOD TASTE.—Our contemporaries seem to have taken it upon themselves to throw cold water on the efforts of our citizens at Vancouver to celebrate the coming national anniversary. We are certain that the ... do not speak the sentiments of the people of Vancouver when we say that if they might desire to have their celebration here, would not question their right or motives for so doing, but when it is considered that the movement originated with us we had some claim of priority of time. We will join with our cotemporaries in the expression that it would be desirable to have the Vancouver people join with us next on the ground that they cannot get up a celebration of their own, but because there are many ties of good feeling between them and our people, ... the fraternity and effects of the garrison—we should be happy and proud to entertain them as guests. We should feel that under the circumstances, if they should conclude to forego their celebration and join with us, we should be deeply indebted to them for a material addition to ours. We do not believe however, that when our cotemporaries made the remarks we have taken exception to, they were aware of the fact that the Vancouver people had begun their movement prior to any action taken at Portland and we do not therefore, believe that they were the expressions of ill will.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—The following were the proceedings in the Circuit Court, yesterday

State vs Barry Kiernan; indicted for assault and battery. Defendant arraigned and allowed until to-morrow with Medley for the State; A C Gibbs for defendant.

State vs James Timmons, jury empanneled H C Dodge, W Hurt S B Kelly, Vincent Cook Chas Vera, John Cullen, H. Gehing Orin Jackson, H O Grob, J W Funk A C Dufur and Alex Hamilton The case was tried at the February term and re-tried at the present term both juries disagreeing, this is the 3 trial of said defendant Mulkey for the State R M Eakin for defendant.

MONEY FOR THE CELEBRATION.—The Finance Committee have been hard at work for the last week, canvassing the people to defray the expenses of the approaching celebration. We learn that they intend to procure ... if it takes all summer, but as the sums subscribed are almost invariable small the ... tion is a fair one that our people intend to make the job a long one. When the sum of one thousand dollars is wanted, it is rather trying on the constitution of a Committeeman to beg half an hour for $5 and then have to take $2 50 or nothing from a business man who will take ... by hundreds on account of the celebration But such is life.

WORDS OF JULY RACES.—In addition to the race pending between the Burbank mare, "Misfortune, and Acker's "Legal Tender" to be run over the Union course on the 3d of July, a race has been made to run a single dash of one mile for a purse consisting of the entrance fee —$10, each horse The following entries have already been made Wm Acker's Red Horse "Lost Knott a "Pegging Awl;" Jack Washburn's "Bald Sternes, Doc Barnum's Young America, Geo. Williams Silver Jim and Abbott's "Deerfoot" The race will take place between 2 and 4 P M, of the 3d—the first horse out to take the entrance money The 2d horse will take the ... money

OREGON TOILET SOAP.—Mr Dunlway, of Albany, left with us yesterday several specimen bars of the new toilet soap manufactured at the Soap Works of McCord & Co , Albany It is apparently as good an article as any of the imported, makes a splendid suds or lather is pleasantly scented, and can be put in market at no greater cost than we have been accustomed to pay Toilet soap is a new manufacture in this State, and we shall hope to see it encouraged Mr D brought down fifty boxes to be sold on trial with the view of introducing it as an article of merchandise

GOOD TEMPLARS CONVENTION.—A convention of delegates from each of the Good Templar s lodges of Multnomah and Clackamas counties, will be held at the hall in Carter's building in this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the 3d of July All members in good standing are invited to attend We understand the object of the meeting to be to perfect arrangements for the Good Templars Celebration of the 4th

ROAD IMPROVEMENT.—We are informed that in Chipman s district, a section of the Portland and Hillsboro road, which has been greatly obstructed by fallen timber, a subscription of $50 is being raised for the purpose of cleaning out and working it as road The road labor at the command of the Supervisor is hardly sufficient for the purpose, hence the commendable private enterprise

ODD FELLOWS' ELECTION.—Minerva Lodge, No 19, I O O F, elected the following officers for the ensuing term at their regular meeting last evening Sol Kuhn, N G M Kuhnhaul V G Chas A Wintzingerode R S Chas Allaby Treasurer H Gundo Grob, Permanent Secretary

PAYOUT.—We are indebted to Purser Shively of the Otter for late files of Victoria papers.

A STRIKE AMONG THE CHINAMEN.—Some sixty or seventy laborers of the Chinese persuasion came down from Milwaukie on b and the Henrietta They came from the East side road having became dissatisfied some with the amount of their wages and others with the vulgar idea of work assigned them Mr Wm Roe signifies his intention of employing them to take their places

A NEW EVENING PAPER.—Mr M J Bull who for a considerable time was city reporter for the Herald, has issued a prospectus for a new daily evening paper to be called The Portland Evening Commercial. It is to be independent at large in the commercial and local interests of the city We are not informed as to the time when it will make its first appearance.

CORK LOST OVERBOARD.—Mr H D Huntington of Monticello, left with the Otter yesterday $12 certificated by the cities mayor of Monticello to the Asbestos Packing Company which was lost overboard while making the trip from the Columbia to Portland The finder will please take notice and return the same to the owner when the name of any person will be with him. It is known that the same Indians murdered Captain Jack Knight and partner, but a short time before. The same Indians on board of these vessels robbed the H Dutch packet of a large quantity of furs, and when the Captain, Captain Warren, the people of the Dutch Coast, informed them that a friendly Indian chief had told to have the Indians were hostile, they were pronounced to be with Russian Indians, having been in permanent league with the Chief of the Tsimpsean tribe of Indians in the vicinity of Fort Rupert. We also learn that Capt. B. Co's people in encouraging the Indians in robbery and murder of all outside parties upon their trading localities as they are known to fabricate and affirm that the whites are the aggressors, and to arrest them for punishment."

INVITATION WANTED.—The Victoria Colonist says: "We learn that the undersigned persons respectively formerly residents of this city will be glad of any information concerning them sent to the post office in Victoria John Arnoup W A Selleck, J Davis, W M Nicholls

Rebel Notables in Texas

[Nashville Correspondence Chicago Tribune.]

HENRY S FOOTE

The list may be commenced with Henry S Foote—"Hangman Foote," as he was called toward the close of the war, on account of certain threats which he made in the Confederate Congress. Mr Foote in 1850 ran for Governor of Mississippi, against Jefferson Davis and was triumphantly elected. Whether in the canvass, he acquired any dislike to the subsequent President of the Southern Confederacy the writer is not prepared to say, certain it is that he was always an anti Jeff Davis man. Elected to the rebel Congress from the Nashville District, Mr Foote played an active part in the councils at Richmond. Near the close of the war he attempted to get through the lines, ostensibly as the bearer of certain propositions of peace. He was arrested, however, and carried back to Richmond.

Shortly afterwards he succeeded in passing the lines, but met with a very cold reception from the Federal authorities. In short, he was refused a hearing and sent out of the country. From England he returned to the United States at the close of the struggle and came to Nashville which he has made his home ever since. Henry S Foote is a man of very considerable talent and ability, a polished scholar, a fine writer and a polite gentleman. His ordinate desire to be before the public in some shape or another led him last year to take some part in local and State politics. Mr Foote is now practising law and is principal of a very select school for young gentlemen studying elocution, the classics and history. He lately joined the Methodist Church, and it was hinted he might enter the ministry. He is quite an old man now, but apparently hale and hearty and may be seen perambulating the streets of Nashville almost any day.

JOHN BELL

John Bell was for a long time in the Federal Congress from the Nashville District, was Speaker of the House and afterwards a Senator. When the troubles were commencing, and war was seen to be almost inevitable, John Bell went to Washington at the time Lincoln was making up his Cabinet, and had an interview with the President. He advised the President to let the South Carolinians take Fort Sumter, Fort Pickens, the forts in Florida, the arsenals of Savannah, Mobile, etc., maintaining that without the North taking up arms the misguided brethren could be made to see the error of their ways and be brought back into the fold. This was doubtless a wise course on the part of Mr Bell, as such action by the Federal Government would have [illegible] great doubt, by an acknowledgment of the Confederacy on the part of foreign powers. [illegible] was the plan in which he urged [illegible] and to elect Jeff Davis as President. [illegible] Mr Bell went [illegible] all times his great influence [illegible] thus. Mr Bell is now probably [illegible] or eighty years of age. He lives on his plantation at the Cumberland Iron Works on the Cumberland River, and [illegible] in his mule is seldom seen in print. [illegible] one time by far the [illegible] year for the two years past [illegible] this world are evidently almost numbered.

ISHAM G. HARRIS

is practising law in Memphis. The indictments against him for [illegible] in the United States Circuit Court at Nashville, have just been dismissed. Mr. Harris was Governor of the State in 1860, and right [illegible] did as much of more than any other man to carry Tennessee into the rebellion. He is the only man who ever served three terms as Governor of this State. He is a tolerably fair lawyer, but [illegible] the Andrew Johnson style and is [illegible] admirer of that individual. His [illegible] the war was confined to acting as [illegible] said to [illegible] Generals. He was one of those [illegible] ditch chaps, and fled to Mexico after the [illegible] Confederacy. On the retail colony of [illegible] the City of Mexico and Vera Cruz, he [illegible] the jack plane and hammer, and [illegible] with his own hands [illegible] to the [illegible] that year, relying upon the [illegible] of Governor [illegible] now, who had resigned his pardons and the withdrawal of the [illegible]. Mr. Harris's prosecution before the [illegible] was tried with [illegible] charge of treason and [illegible] with politics, but [illegible] entirely to his prosecution and [illegible] like a [illegible].

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE

[illegible] Breckinridge [illegible] with [illegible] up the struggle, with [illegible] at the Ft. Pillow affair, is well [illegible]. He is now President of the [illegible] Company of Memphis. The [illegible] is, certainly, a good sized book, [illegible] its appearance. Of course it is full of [illegible] and exaggeration.

JOHN OVERTON,

John Overton was the wealthiest man in Tennessee [illegible] at the close of the war. His possessions [illegible] up only more than four millions of dollars. He was an original secessionist, and a [illegible] of Admiral Graham Harris, in 1861 Mr. Overton, in a public speech, carried to Mr. Harris's mind [illegible] in the name of the South you may [illegible] on me for all my fortune." The [illegible] of the "Hermitage" of Nashville was [illegible] on Mr. Overton's plantation. Mr Overton will be this city at the close of the war, and has [illegible] one of the quietest and most unobtrusive men in the State; so far, has he been recognized [illegible] Governor Brownlow appointed him, three days, a State Director in the Nashville & Decatur Railroad. He is now busy finishing his immense hotel in Nashville. It is to be called [illegible] so, and is one of the largest in the United States, containing in all three hundred and sixty-five [illegible]. Soldiers who have been in Nashville will remember it under the title of [illegible], it served through the war as [illegible].

GENERAL JOHN T. MORGAN

[illegible] from Tennessee [illegible] Congress, did [illegible] in Clarke [illegible] an out [illegible] of the popular sort, and [illegible] of the great Patrick [illegible]. He was a delegate to the convention in [illegible] which nearly [illegible] Bell and Everett. While [illegible] this convention, an exquisite [illegible] to him by General admiring ladies took the flowers in his hand and pinned [illegible] prostrate [illegible] "Every leaf, every [illegible] from the hand [illegible] by God for the perpetuation [illegible] the world speaches very [illegible] that a few months after. Mr [illegible] relieved as retired as possible, practising his profession [illegible] the law.

"SENATOR" HAYNES.

L. G. Haynes, the other Senator from Tennessee in the rebel Congress, now resides in Memphis, and is also engaged in the practice of law.

NEILL S BROWN

Neill S. Brown, once Minister to Russia under Zachary Taylor, and afterwards Governor of Tennessee, [illegible] on original Union man, but was carried [illegible] by the last. He died on the Confederate Peace Military Board, and was an active [illegible] in the rebellion. He now resides in Nashville, but, unlike most men of his calibre, record and rank [illegible], dabbles in politics, of course on the Conservative side.

SOCIAL EQUALITY AT ELECTIONS.—The Atlanta New Era, of May 14th, has the following showing the means used by the Democrats in Georgia to get new votes:

We extract the following from a letter received to-day from a friend in Savannah, rehearsing some of those scenes which were witnessed during the late election in that city. It [illegible] demonstrates the feelings of our "New Issue" Democratic friends toward the colored voters.

"The fight has been made on Clift and Fitch throughout. Fitch and his friends have resorted to all kinds of tricks known to politicians, besides the intimidation made by one thousand white citizens, stationed day after day about the polls. In the city business was suspended almost entirely, and even many prominent citizens—old men—stood hours in the hot sun to encourage boys in jostling crowding, and pushing the darkies in. They rode in carriages with him, drank with and hugged him, and carried him on their shoulders in triumphal procession, at the close, when they supposed we were beaten."

WHO IS THE?—Among all the names mentioned as likely to be prominent before the Democratic Convention for nomination to the Presidency, that of Andrew Johnson nowhere appears! Has the old horse been turned out to die? Has he been a wheeler so long pulling through the mud and mire that he is worked out, and no longer available or useful? Is this the sum and substance of those pattings on the back which certain journals and men bestowed upon him when he attempted to hinder reconstruction? Poor Johnson! And is this your reward from the party who you have so [illegible] sought to serve? They will use you, but will not trust you! Poor President, your [illegible]!—Evansville Rev.

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern. I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel" and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy fines and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff" I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17 1868

"Mr. A. Myers: In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower rim of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tier of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of them added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern.—One A Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law. His statements are not worth a dollar. His gammon Bluff, which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of 30 years and his interpretations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H W SHIPLEY
